Photography:

Country Day has permission to take and use photographs of the children for purposes of creating memory books, graduation slideshows, classroom projects and documentation of learning. Some of our activities may be displayed on our school's website or Facebook page but faces will not be shown. No photos will ever be sold or be used in a harmful way. Please ask if you have any questions about how we use your child's photographs.

___ I give permission for Country Day School to take and use photographs to capture and display activities and document learning.

___ I do not give Country Day School permission to take my child's photo for any purpose.
